

Curb Corruption in Health, Education and Utilities

Higher levels of corruption are associated with higher child mortality and illiteracy rates. Up to 40 per cent of water and sanitation finances are lost to corrupt practices.